2022 Leadership Reset Series

Navigating the New Turbulence: Leadership for a Crisis-Prone World

Professor Paul 't Hart
5 November 2022

Crisis Leadership Focus

Professor Paul 't Hart is best-known for his research and teaching on crisis management and on public leadership. He has (co-)authored and (co-)edited 50 books, including the prize-winning The Pivot of Power: Australian Prime Ministers and Political Leadership, 1949-2016. He is a much sought-after international expert on crisis management.

Professor Paul 't Hart

Paul 't Hart is a Dutch Australian and is currently Professor of Public Administration at Utrecht University and Associate Dean of the Netherlands School of Public Administration in The Hague. He resumed both positions in mid-2011, after spending five years as Professor of Political Science at the Australian National University. Paul's research, teaching and consulting covers political and public sector leadership, policy evaluation, public accountability and crisis management.

He has extensive consulting experience within government, primarily in Holland, Sweden and Australia, including secondments at the Dutch Intelligence Service and Public Prosecutors Office. He gave evidence at the Royal Commission into the Victorian Bushfires. Paul has been a core faculty member of the Australia New Zealand School of Government since 2007 and the Executive Challenge Academy since 2011.

Paul regularly conducts workshops and lectures all around the Dutch and Australian public sectors, mostly on themes related to public leadership, crisis management, and political-administrative relations.

In 2016, Paul was awarded an Advanced Grant from the European Science Foundation for a 5-year programme investigating the nature and preconditions of highly successful public policies, public organisations and public collaborations.

5 events from 28 June - 5 November 2022

The Alliance for Leadership Learning is pleased to present the Leadership Reset Series for 2022. These in-person full-day workshops will be offered in Brisbane and follow on from our Leadership Reset Series of 2021.

This is the era when solving the greatest social, ecological, and human challenge is here and now – no longer a distant future. Senior leaders must confront hard truths and prepare for what is to come next.

Our experts will lead you to think about:

- Trends, emerging issues, as well as potential shocks, threats, and innovations.
- Taking leadership to a new place: outside the building to improve our world.
- The issues of accountability, ethics and integrity.
- The need for those with power and influence to collaborate across boundaries.
- Understanding post-normal environments and preparing for what is coming.
- The lessons learnt about how to lead through prolonged uncertainty and crisis.

Five exceptional workshops are available between 28 June and 5 November 2022.

- Tuesday 28 June: Dr Mark Strom - Leading with Wisdom in These Times
- Thursday 18 August: Professor Silke Meyer - Leading Collaboratively in Complex Systems
- Thursday 29 September: Professor Anne Tiernan - Accountability and Integrity: Building High-Trust Organisations
- Wednesday 19 October: Dr Liam Mayo - How to Hack Cultures to Create New Futures
- Saturday 5 November: Professor Paul 't Hart - Navigating the New Turbulence: Leadership for a Crisis-Prone World
