8 exceptional workshops during 2024

The Alliance for Leadership Learning is pleased to present the 2024 Workshop Series. These in-person full-day workshops will be offered in Brisbane.

This is the era when solving the greatest social, ecological, and human challenge is here and now – no longer a distant future. Senior leaders must confront hard truths and prepare for what is to come next.

We bring some of the world's best thought-leaders to you in one-day 'done and dusted' workshops held throughout the year.

Eight exceptional workshops are available:

- Dr Liam Mayo - Governing Futures in the Present (8 February 2024)
- Professor Silke Meyer - Transforming Systems (28 May 2024)
- Dr Mark Strom - Leading with Wisdom (12 June 2024)
- Professor Anne Tiernan - Trust Integrity and Governance (10 July 2024)
- Viv Reid - Systems and Complexity (15 August 2024)
- Dr Jeanne Hoffman - Anticipating Futures (12 September 2024)
- Dr Christine Nixon & Professor Amanda Sinclair - Leadership Identities (8 October 2024)
- Dr John Harte - Good to Great Leadership and the 7Qs (19 November 2024)

Speaker Profiles

Dr Liam Mayo

Liam is a CEO, writer and public speaker who specialises in helping organisations navigate transformational change. With a focus on engaging people through change, Liam specialises in working with communities in complex environments to achieve sustainable, just and desired futures. He is a Senior Fellow with the Centre for Postnormal Policy and Futures Studies and an Adjunct Industry Fellow for The School of Social Sciences, University of the Sunshine Coast.

Professor
Silke Meyer

Silke is the Leneen Forde Chair of Child & Family Research, Professor of Social Work, Griffith University. Her research centres on different aspects of domestic and family violence, including women and children's safety, wellbeing and recovery, men's accountability in their role as perpetrators and fathers, experiences specific to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities and the role of domestic and family violence-informed practice in child protection, policing and court proceedings.

Professor
Anne Tiernan

Anne is one of Australia's leading political scientists. Her research focuses on the work of governing. Dr Tiernan has published extensively in Australia and internationally, including most recently The Oxford Handbook of Australian Politics (co-edited with Professor Jenny Lewis, 2021). Anne is a National Fellow of the Institute of Public Administration Australia, and a Fellow of the Australia and New Zealand School of Government and has held a range of Board appointments.

Dr Mark
Strom

Mark Strom has over 25 years of professional consulting and CEO experience and consults to corporations and government bodies on systems thinking, cultural change, learning and leadership. He has been a featured speaker on how ideas shape people and people shape ideas at TEDx (Geneva), McKinsey & Company global partners, the Harvard Club (Brussels), Young Presidents Organization (Vatican), Vivid Sydney, and many more.

Viv Reid

Viv specialises in organisational development, complexity tools and processes, workplace change, large group facilitation, experiential learning, narrative research, leadership development, executive coaching, partnering and stakeholder engagement. She is an accredited practitioner with Cognitive Edge and the Cynefin Framework.

Dr Jeanne
Hoffman

Jeanne Hoffman is an award winning Associate Professor at Tamkang University, Taiwan and Adjunct Fellow at the University of the Sunshine Coast, Australia and Director of Anticipating Futures. She is skilled in futures and foresight methodologies, emerging issues and trend analysis, scenario planning and strategic foresight. Jeanne is an education professional with a Masters of Economics and Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) focused in Futures, China and International Relations from Macquarie University.

Christine Nixon
& Professor
Amanda Sinclair

Christine Nixon shares with her audiences a lifetime of high-level achievement, public profile and the associated pressures of leadership. As the 19th Chief Commissioner of Victoria Police, she has direct experience of running a highly complex organisation through change, disruption and, at times, extreme circumstances. Professor Amanda Sinclair is a widely published author, recognised in academic and corporate circles as a pioneer in diversity and women in leadership and an explorer of the application of mindfulness in leadership. Amanda has worked as an academic and consultant, coaching individuals and senior management teams in the government and corporate sectors.

Dr John Harte

John is the Managing Partner of Integrity Governance. He specialises in working with businesses at a point of inflection, and boards and businesses under pressure due to change. He spent over 15 years working across a range of industries and held chief executive, chairman and director roles in a number of companies around the world. John is a core international facilitator for the Australian Institute of Company Directors, and is an in-demand speaker and thought leader on board effectiveness, practical governance and business disruption. He's a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and the Institute of Directors (UK).
