Executive Challenge Academy – Winter School 2019 Adaptive Leadership June 25-26, Sunshine Coast

What is Executive Challenge Academy (ECA)?

Today's leaders face challenges that are more global, fluid and multidimensional. Issues, including change, must be managed within an increasingly complex environment. Leaders also need to develop public, economic and social value of any organisation or the sector they lead. Effective leaders rely on learnings and networks that transcend geography, jurisdiction, profession and sector.

At ECA, you will step out of your everyday context and into a dynamic ongoing learning community. Here you will become steeped in new thinking and new ways of approaching your challenges, and make connections with innovative leaders from across sectors and around the world.

Adaptive Leadership: (with Robbie McPherson)

Day 1 (June 25th): Leadership in a Post Truth era. Creating a new narrative

Day 2 (June 26th): Good Enough Leadership / Surviving the challenge

These workshops will include presentation, conversation, case studies and scenarios. It creates an opportunity for practitioners and leaders to explore:

- What it means to lead public organisations;
- What is changing;
- What it means to lead in crisis, disruption and the VUCA world;
- How we need to understand managing risks of institutional and reputational damage;
- How we lead systems and individuals to work with complexity, learning and adapting in real time.

What you will learn:

Participants will explore:

- Key challenges facing public leaders – government, NGO and political
- The most promising conceptual and practical tools to tackle these challenges
- The opportunity to decide your change agency leadership style

Who will lead the course?

Robbie McPherson has 20 years of experience designing and delivering innovative, transformational leadership and talent development programs for a diverse range of organisations, sectors and environments. His passion is helping individuals and systems develop the capacity to solve their own problems and overcome the complex challenges they face, using their ingenuity, skill and innovation. The key to this is the ability to learn and adapt in real time, which requires openness, curiosity, experimentation and resilience.

After Robbie migrated from Scotland in 1989 he gained extensive experience in both the corporate world and NGO sector, including managing the Big Sister / Big Brother youth mentoring program for 6 years. For over a decade Robbie was an Executive for Australia's oldest NGO, the Benevolent Society, where he was Director of Australia's leading NGO social leadership consultancy, Social Leadership Australia.

Robbie is an experienced and effective executive coach who has worked with hundreds of senior executives across all sectors, as well as coaching a range of executive teams. He continues to work directly with a number of Australia's major organisations and corporations including Australian federal Police, ATO, NAB, CBA, Telstra, BP, Australia Post, Medibank and BHP. His work has taken him to South Africa, US, UK, and the Netherlands, as well as all the states and territories of Australia.

Robbie's other passions are running along the Cooks river, listening to his eclectic music collection, watching series of outstanding HBO / Netflix television, and most importantly spending time with his 3 teenage daughters, and wife Jeannie. On a good day he is able to cover all of these pursuits, and rest well.
