Testimonials

"(The) programs bring diverse people together to learn from the best and to develop communities of practice that deliver real outcomes, all based on strong theory."

Bob Gee, Director-General, Department of Agriculture and Fisheries

"Early on in my career I would look with awe at more senior leaders and wonder how they learnt to lead and how much of leadership is innately who we are and how much is experience and learning. Many years later I still ask questions of myself about how to be a better leader and I suspect I will for as long as I lead. The answers are of course in the mix of learning through experience, learning through watching others and learning in partnership with colleagues. I have been very grateful for the opportunities the ECA programs afforded me to step outside of the everyday busy routines and to think deeply about leadership."

Deidre Mulkerin, Director General, Department of Children, Youth Justice and Multicultural Affairs

"Attending the Executive Challenge Academy helped me understand the transformative power of collaboration – that magic that happens when diverse perspectives are connected around questions that matter."

Brett Pointing, Deputy Commissioner, Australian Federal Police
