Events on Oxlade, New Farm

Leading and governing through complexity

This workshop will explore the leadership and governance challenges and opportunities facing you as executives, CEOs, board members and organisational leaders in the long shadow of COVID19.

This is an essential conversation for Boards and leadership teams to explore together, led and facilitated by one of the most eminent minds in the field.

$800 for the workshop

John Harte

John is the Managing Partner of Integrity Governance. He specialises in working with businesses at a point of inflection, and boards and businesses under pressure due to change.

Prior to establishing Integrity Governance over 15 years ago, John worked across a range of industries and held chief executive, chairman and director roles in a number of companies around the world. John's extensive experience means he's equipped to help you navigate growth, new markets, mergers, acquisitions and crises; and the pressures of new ownership, generational, economic or legislative forces .

John is a core international facilitator for the Australian Institute of Company Directors, and is an in-demand speaker and thought leader on board effectiveness, practical governance and business disruption. He's a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, the Institute of Directors (UK), Financial Services Institute of Australia, a Board Leadership Fellow of the National Association of Corporate Directors (USA) and a member of the Chartered Institute of Public Relations.

John shows organisations how to make governance work for them. He works with privately owned, not-for-profit, family owned, public listed businesses and government organisations to deliver better results.
