Executive Challenge Academy Spring Leadership Series

24–26 November 2021 in Brisbane

● Focus on Leading our way out of crisis

Since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, leadership has been put to the test. Emerging from the crisis stronger and more resilient requires rethinking what it means to lead.

● Eminent Faculty

Acknowledged experts with CEO and academic experience.

Two workshops in Brisbane that will be a pivotal experience in your leadership journey (for different reasons).

Experienced and knowledgeable experts show you how to lead within complex systems and environments.

Leading and governing through complexity

John Harte

John is the Managing Partner of Integrity Governance. He specialises in working with businesses at a point of inflection, and boards and businesses under pressure due to change. John has worked across a range of industries and held chief executive, chairman and director roles in a number of companies around the world.

Wednesday 24 November

Leading Change: New models for a different context in 2021

Christine Nixon APM

Christine Nixon shares with her audiences a lifetime of high-level achievement, public profile and the associated pressures of leadership.

As the 19th Chief Commissioner of Victoria Police, she has direct experience of running a highly complex organisation through change, disruption and, at times, extreme circumstances.

Amanda Sinclair

Amanda is a widely published author, recognised in academic and corporate circles as a pioneer in diversity and women in leadership and explorer of the application of mindfulness in leadership. After completing her PhD in Political Psychology at the University of Melbourne, Amanda has worked as an academic and consultant, coaching individuals and senior management teams in the government and corporate sectors.

Leading Change: New models for a different context in 2021

This two-day workshop will be a pivotal experience in your leadership journey as we explore what we can learn from the leadership on display in the new models of popularist leadership.

We will consider how the task of leadership has changed with COVID from more traditional styles and focus towards building cultures of care. This is an important experience for community, public and private sector leaders as well as teams developing their shared approaches to developing a collaborative leadership practice.

Workshop Outline

Day One, Thursday 25 November

The big picture – changing context for leadership

What are new demands on leaders? What will help us make a difference in our roles?

Influencing others

Building your presence and impact as a leader

Day Two, Friday 26 November

Identity and presence

Leadership Challenges

Doing leadership sustainably
